LOUISVILLE.

An Editorial Opinion as to Secretary Morgan.

One of D. Appleton's Agents a Defaulter for $2500.
Suit to Recover $10,000 Damages For Death of a Son.

LOUISVILLE, October 25.—The Courier-Journal of to-day says: The nomination of Governor Edwin D. Morgan for Secretary of the Treasury was yesterday sent to the Senate and promptly confirmed. The selection of a New Yorker for this important post is an open defiance to the interests, opinions and wishes of the West, as well as a direct renunciation of the policy mapped out by the late President Garfield. But this apart, the appointment of Governor Morgan will be accepted by the country as upon the whole a good one. He is a qualified and an upright man of large experience and despite his advanced years of splendid working capacity, as a man of business and as a gentleman of amiable character and excellent address, a better choice could not have been made.

The shortage of N. Austin, defaulting collector for D. Appleton & Co's. Encyclopedia Britannica in this city, is now placed at $2500, all of which will fall on the company. R. Thompson, agent for this section, with headquarters at Cleveland, who has been in this city since Friday has returned home. The defalcation was not known until Friday night, when Austin himself revealed it. He directed a note to Mr. George E. Leavenworth, of Louisville, agent, under whom he was employed, requesting him to call at his house. Leavenworth was admitted by the son of Austin and shown into his father's business room. There Leavenworth found on the fly leaf of a book a note directed to himself, which ran thus:

"I am short in my accounts and am gone, God knows where."

An examination of his accounts confirmed his acknowledged crime. He had been in this city at work for about two years and all confidence was placed in him. He left behind him two little boys, aged twelve and fourteen years respectively, of whom Mr. Leavenworth has assumed charge. Austin has not been heard from since Friday night.

Georgia Green, an administratrix of George Green, her son, brought suit against the Southern Dairy Co. for $40,000 damages. Green was killed about a year ago by being crushed to death by the elevator, of which he was conductor at the factory of the defendant.

PHILADELPHIA.

Pink-Eye Among Horses and Pleuro-Pneumonia Among Cattle.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., October 25.—About one hundred horses in the stables of Tenth and Eleventh streets railway company are suffering from "pink-eye." Pleuro-pneumonia has again made its appearance among the cattle in Germantown and in three herds in Delaware county.

New York Stock Market.

NEW YORK, October 25, 11 a.m.—The stock market opened generally strong and higher, and in the early dealings prices advanced  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$ . Metropolitan Elevated being a notable exception, and selling down from 90  $\frac{1}{2}$  to 88  $\frac{1}{2}$ . At the first board the general list became weak, and a decline of  $\frac{1}{4}$  to  $\frac{1}{2}$  took place. It was most marked in Manhattan Elevated, which fell off from 54  $\frac{1}{2}$  to 53  $\frac{1}{2}$ . The advance in Jersey Central yesterday, was partly the result of a demand made by strong interest that the company be immediately taken out of the hands of the receiver. Insiders were large buyers of the stock. C. P. Huntington pronounced premature the report that the Union and Central Pacific companies have decided the former to stop its Oregon line at Baker City, and the latter not to build to the Missouri river. Negotiations to the end are pending, but no settlement has been reached. The Arizona brought over \$250,000 in gold.

Brewery Burned.

CINCINNATI, October 25.—A Times-Star special from Aurora, Ind., says: A fire started this morning in the dry-room of the Crescent Brewing Company's brewery. The steam fire engine was out of order and failed for half an hour to get to work, though promptly on the ground. There were stored in the cellar 200,000 kegs of beer. The building, machinery and stock are considered a total loss. The insurance on the building and machinery is $55,000. The total loss is estimated at $175,000.

The Weather.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—For the Ohio valley and Tennessee, clearing weather, westerly winds, and stationary or higher barometer and temperature. Missouri valley, fair weather, westerly winds, and stationary or higher barometer and temperature.

INDIAN TROUBLES.

A Railway Surveying Party Apply for a Military Escort.

A Strong Body of Indians Moving on an Agency.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 24.—A Tucson special says:—The Texas and Pacific railway surveying party have applied for a military escort, which has not yet been granted. The course of the survey leads them through the San Carlos agency to Globe, and it is feared that the Indians may be suspicious of their movements and give trouble. Should they suspect that an attempt to steal their land was being made, they would probably attack the surveyors.

A special from Casa Grande says: Early this morning Mrs. R. B. Wheeler, wife of Pura, the Indian agent, arrived at this station accompanied by Miss Lula French, Mrs. G. Armstrong, Mrs. Kyle and a young son of Mr. Wheeler. They report that the Salt River Indians have become provoked at the agent on the same pretext, and are on their way to attack the agency. They say these reports are verified by old settlers on Salt River arriving at the agency. Rev. Mr. Cook, an old resident of the agency, expresses himself as much alarmed at the outlook. It seems that the Indians are in the habit of going to Tempe and getting on big drunks. Wheeler has had them arrested and punished by compelling them to labor. This is thought to be the cause of the threatened difficulty. They are said to be 600 strong, and will probably appear at the agency to-day. What makes this movement somewhat inexplicable is the fact that they have always been peaceable toward the whites, though implacable foes of the Apaches, for whom in times past they were more than a match. It is not thought that anything serious will come out of this. The Indians when they started were doubtless under the influence of liquor. By the time they reach the agency they will be mollified and will not care to carry out their threats. The agency guard consists of officers and teachers and fifteen policemen.

BY CABLE.

PARIS, October 25.—The negotiations for the Anglo-French treaty of commerce were resumed to-day.

LONDON, October 25.—At the New-market nursery handicap for two year olds, the race was won by Magician. Donald Caird was second and Marquis de Florence third. The race for the Cambridgehire stakes was won by Keene's Foxhall, with Lucy Glitters second and Tristan third.

Sunday night burglars entered a house in the town of Varpalanka, Hungary, and murdered the whole family of nine persons, including an infant and a man aged ninety years.

A Vienna correspondent says: King Humbert's visit to Berlin has been postponed because of the unwillingness of Bismarck to rouse the susceptibilities of France.

There was another earthquake at Agram Sunday night. Several houses were overturned.

A dispatch from Rome says: Two small villages, Claudio and Valetta, were destroyed by fire. Three persons were killed and eleven seriously injured during the conflagration. Forty families are homeless.

DUBLIN, October 25.—The arrest of Miss Hodnett, at Ballydehale yesterday, was merely a Police Court affair, and not under the Coercion Act. A priest near Clare Morris evaded police interference yesterday by holding a Land League meeting in his chapel. It is thought this plan will be resorted to generally for future meetings.

Missouri State Bonds to be Called In.

ST. LOUIS, October 25.—The Fund Commissioners at Jefferson City are now engaged in making an estimate of the 5-20 State bonds to be called in for redemption, under the provisions of the Constitution, and will be made in a few days, probably by the first of November, and for $250,000 of such bonds to be paid by the first of November next.

Not Accepted Yet.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—The latest advice at the Treasury Department is that ex-Governor Morgan has not yet accepted the Treasury portfolio. Secretary Windom maintains that his duties at the Department have ceased. Judge French has been appointed acting Secretary, and is signing letters to-day. Secretary Windom is now with President Arthur.

Assassination of the Czar.

Secretary Morgan.

CINCINNATI, October 25.—The Times-Star this afternoon publishes an interview with the leading representative of each bank in Cincinnati in reference to their opinion as to the wisdom of the appointment of ex-Governor Edwin D. Morgan, Secretary of the Treasury. None of the bankers speak unfavorably of the appointment, while a majority of them express a high degree of satisfaction.

The market opened steady this forenoon with a good demand from spinners, but buyers for foreign account were shy and complain that there is no margin between prices here and those quoted in Liverpool. Shipments abroad aggregate 477,927 bales, against 624,784 last year, and 500,330 the year before. Stocks on hand are 600,259 bales, against 570,577 last year, and 459,552 bales the year before.

The President's Friends.

WASHINGTON, October 23.—It is announced by President Arthur's friends that there will be much more style in the White House domesticity under him than has been shown for many administrations; in fact, the executive household will be conducted on the principle that rules in New York among the wealthy men of the world, and to which class President Arthur belongs. There will, in short, be elegance, and a scarcity of cold water, which will certainly be as broad a contrast as ever was when we retrospect upon the Hayes' alleged administration.

An Expensive Witness Who Did Not Testify.

Nashville American, 24.—Mr. W. H. Carroll, of Memphis, was summoned to appear before the Barrett jury to testify in the Barrett case. Mr. Carroll came and was then informed by Attorney General Washington that he would not be required to testify. Mr. Carroll, of course, claimed his mileage and attendance, which will amount to over thirty dollars.

Death of President Davis' Sister.

Courier-Journal.—Mrs. Amanda Davis Bradford, relict of the late David Bradford, of Louisiana, died on yesterday morning, 22d inst., at the residence of her son-in-law, Mr. E. L. Miles, of New Hope, Nelson county, Ky. Mrs. Bradford was the only surviving sister of Hon. Jefferson Davis, and was born near Hopkinsville, in this State, on the 1st day of November, 1800. She was therefore within a few days of being eighty-one years of age. Her funeral will take place Monday at 12 m., from the Abbey of Gethsemane. She was a lady of exalted virtues and Christian charity, beloved by all for her pure and blameless life.

Peace in Ireland.

New York Herald, 23.—The dispatches from Ireland this morning do not materially alter the situation as hitherto reported. The government, it is evident, is in supreme control. There are no outbreaks, no riots, and the sober thought of even the more impulsive members of the Land League who are not in jail seems to be asserting itself. This is a condition of affairs which all who sympathize with Irish suffering and distress will heartily approve. There could be only one result in an armed conflict—the shooting down of poor peasantry in a most unqual crisis. It was feared that the League leaders would provoke a terrible crisis of this kind. The Irish are a shrewd, practical people, however impulsive they may be, and they now seem to have accepted the wisest advice that has been offered them—that of the venerable and patriotic Archbishop Croke. In the present emergency his counsel is the safest they can adopt. His devotion to Ireland cannot be questioned, and if they follow where he leads they cannot go astray. The opposite policy is madness.

DANIEL-CARRON CANVASS.

What an Old Virginian Has to Say About It.

Washington Post.] Colonel David Carter, who was Assistant Clerk of the House of Representatives in 1861, and who is at the present time Journal Clerk of the Virginia Legislature, was met on the street yesterday by a Post reporter, and in conversation regarding political matters in the "Old Dominion," he expressed himself to the effect that the contest would be a very close one, with the changes in favor of Daniel. There was going to be a severe struggle, and the result would be a decisive one as to politics throughout the South. The fight in Virginia was the entering wedge, and if the Democrats were beaten it meant a change in the entire South. The question, he thought, was as to how far the negro was concurred, and the changes that were now being effected were among the whites. Daniel was a natural born orator, a fearless and forcible speaker, and well calculated to make political conversions. Mr. Carter was well acquainted with General Mahone, and they were good friends; a better drillmaster he never knew, but so far as ex-Confederate sympathy was concerned, he stood almost entirely alone. As in elections everywhere else, a great deal depended on the spending of money.
